Character Descriptions

Evan Hansen – A high school senior with social anxiety. He is assigned by his therapist to write letters to himself about why each day will be good, which becomes the catalyst for the plot of the story (hence the name, Dear Evan Hansen).

Audition song: For Forever Call Back song: Only Us Cold Read will be provided

Heidi Hansen – Evan's mother, a nurse's aide who attends paralegal school at night, often leaving Evan on his own as a result.

Audition song: Your Choice Call back song: Anybody got a map. Cold Read will be provided

Connor Murphy – A classmate of Evan and high school senior who, like Evan, is also a social outcast with no friends, and is a frequent drug user, getting high to cope with his aggressive and violent tendencies. Connor eventually takes his own life during Act 1. His ghost appears in Evan's mind throughout the rest of the musical.

Audition song: Your Choice Call back song: Sincerely, Me/melody Cold read will be provided

Zoe Murphy – Connor's younger sister and Evan's longtime crush. She was never close to Connor, even hated him and thought he was a monster, but wishes she had known him better and turns to Evan after he lies and says he was friends with Connor.

Audition song: Requiem. Call back song: Only us Cold read will be provided

Cynthia Murphy – Connor and Zoe's stay-at-home mother. She is constantly trying to keep her fragile family from falling apart but is often unsuccessful.

Audition song: Your choice Call back: Cold read will be provided

Larry Murphy – Connor and Zoe's busy and distant father.

Audition song: Your choice. Call back: Cold read will be provided

Jared Kleinman – Evan's droll and sarcastic friend. He helps Evan and Alana find The Connor Project.
